To Whom It May Concern:

Mr. Federico Franzoni, with position of Director and Vendor Manager at the company Loki Games OÜ

CERTIFIES THAT:

Helena Landeras Landeras has collaborated with us as a freelance English to Spanish linguist since October 2017. She has contributed with high professionalism to some of our most important projects and franchises, satisfying critical clients for our business. She ensured our success in special projects with very challenging deadlines, high pressure and focus on quality.

As a company, we strongly recommend Helena as an asset for any linguistic team in need of a proactive and enthusiastic professional.

During our collaboration, which is still ongoing, Helena has impressed our team with the following qualities:

- She is very responsive and strives to keep an active and constructive communication all the times.
- She shares our idea of teamwork: she is always keen to go the extra mile and accountable with the deadlines.
- Most importantly, she shows interest and enthusiasm in the tasks she takes care of and in game localization business in general.

We would be glad to provide any more information to strengthen Helena's candidacy to any position in the game localization business or in the general translation industry. If you are looking for a trustable and skilled linguistic service provider, look no further: we trust you have found the right person.
