

Hi

We are a company specialized in game localization from China. We are writing this letter to highly recommend Helena, who has collaborated with our company for over five years. She is responsible for Spanish localization translation in the field of games.

Helena is an exceptional Spanish translator, who is able to complete the Spanish translation on time and provide a higher quality translation with accurate words, localized expressions and fewer issues. Additionally, she can also promptly respond to message and meet our requirement during the translation.

Helena is an excellent and trusted translator. We sincerely recommend Helena for any future translation task.

Best Regards
Nancy
